Description

Ergonomic fit and the finest fabrics keep you one step ahead of your competition. The Campagnolo Racing Full Zip jersey is tailored with cutting-edge Meryl Active System, a natural feeling fabric offering superb moisture management and thermo regulation, even during intense physical activity. Underarms, side panels and rear shoulder yolk use bacteriostatic Carbonaid fabric to optimize breathability and manage moisture. Silicone gripper on the hem keeps the jersey in place. Details include two back pockets with two zippered security pockets and reflective elements visible to 160 meters.
